Word Wall 1

This word wall is full of red words. Red words are the tricky words that cannot be sounded out. Please help your child to learn to read these words by sight. Each week their teacher will check to see which words they can read and give them a tick. If your child has three ticks next to a word then they can colour in that 'brick' on their 'wall'.

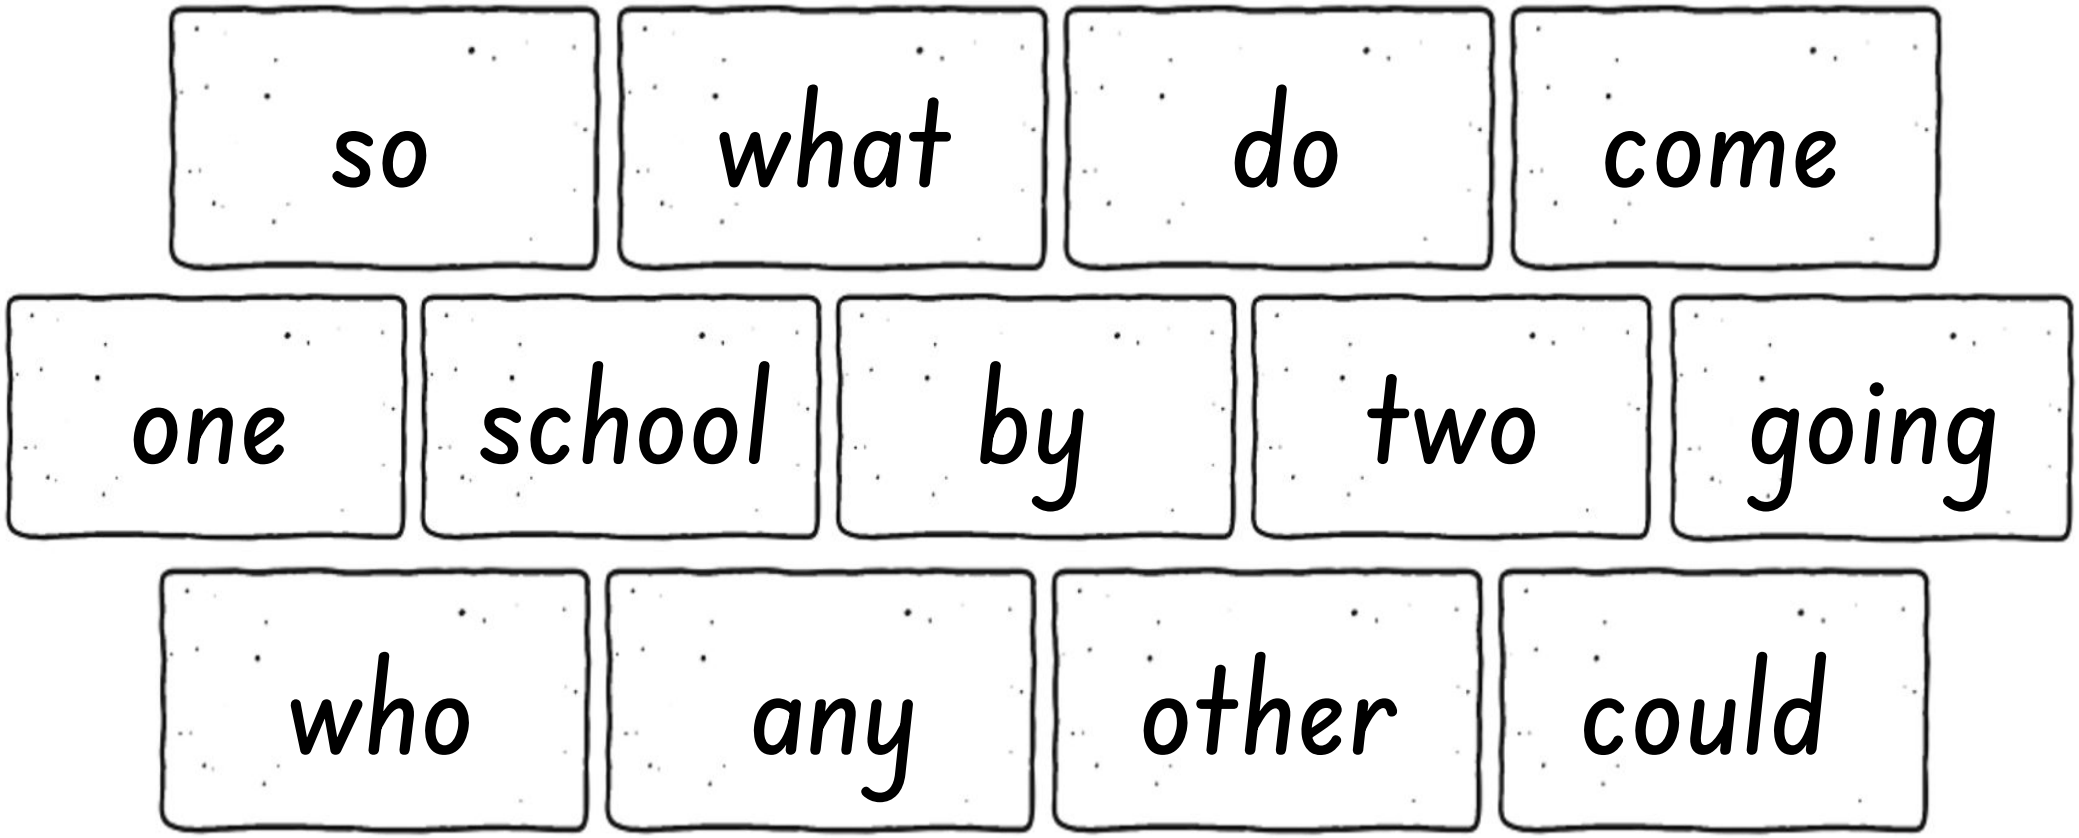

Word Wall 2

This word wall is full of red words. Red words are the tricky words that cannot be sounded out. Please help your child to learn to read these words by sight. Each week their teacher will check to see which words they can read and give them a tick. If your child has three ticks next to a word then they can colour in that 'brick' on their 'wall'.

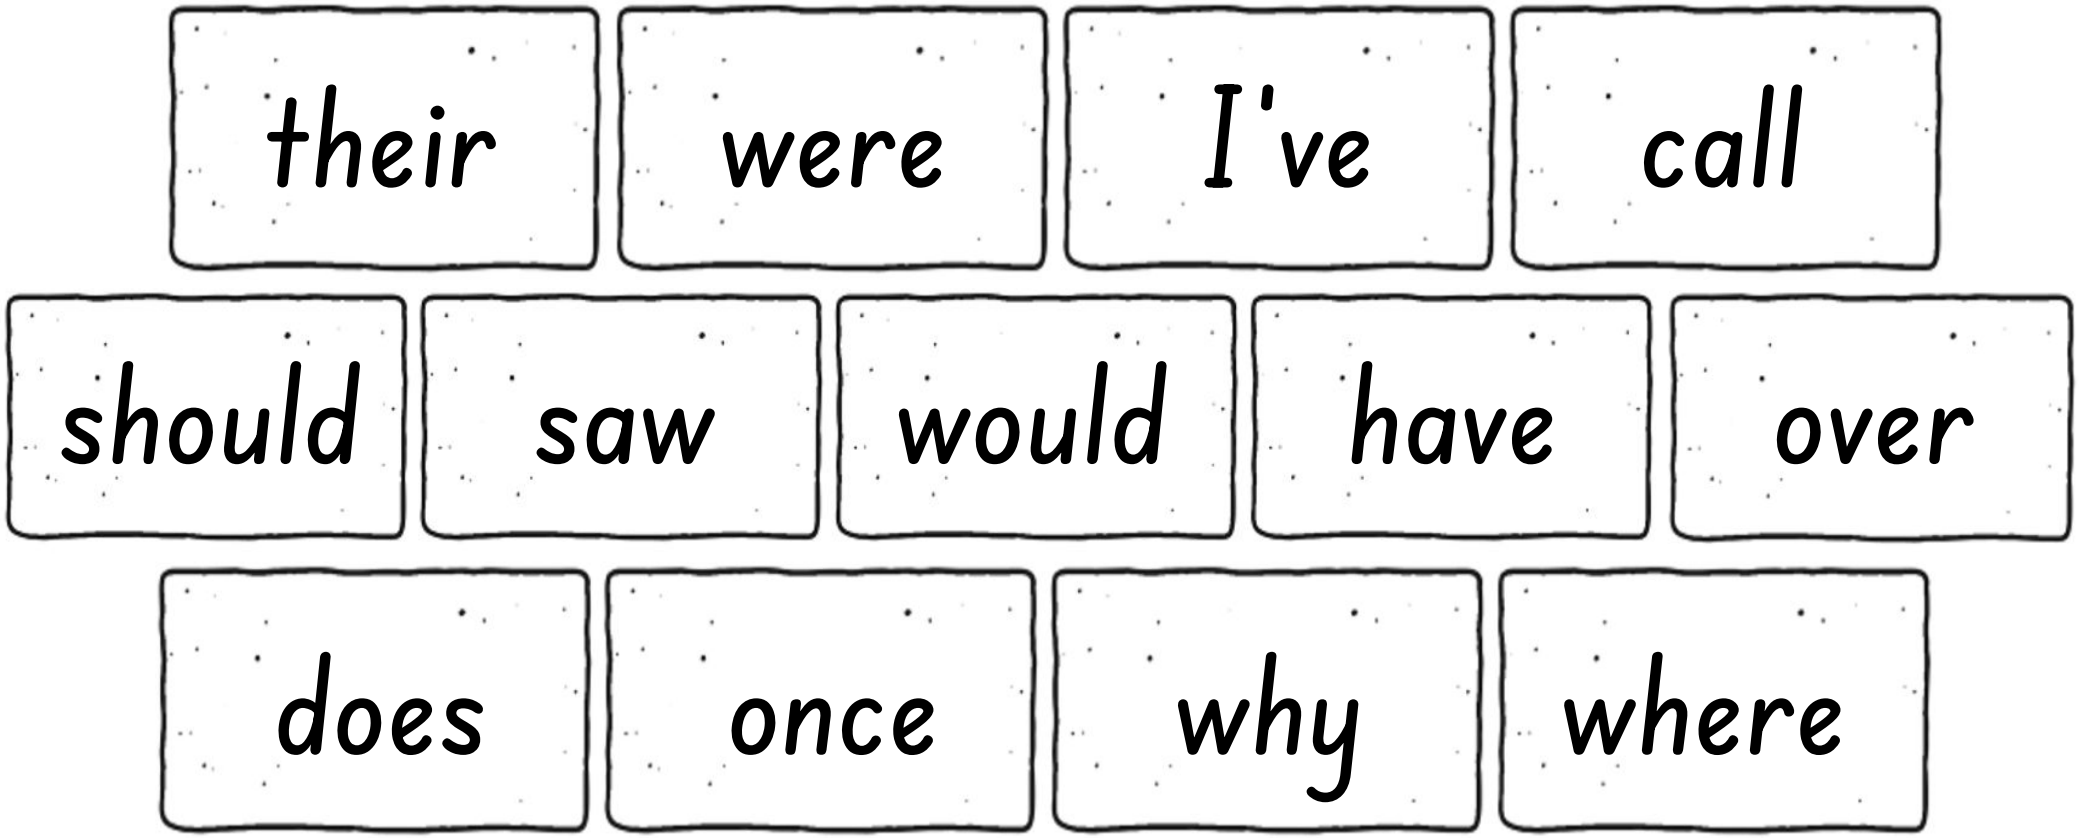

Word Wall 3

This word wall is full of red words. Red words are the tricky words that cannot be sounded out. Please help your child to learn to read these words by sight. Each week their teacher will check to see which words they can read and give them a tick. If your child has three ticks next to a word then they can colour in that 'brick' on their 'wall'.

Word Wall 4

This word wall is full of red words. Red words are the tricky words that cannot be sounded out. Please help your child to learn to read these words by sight. Each week their teacher will check to see which words they can read and give them a tick. If your child has three ticks next to a word then they can colour in that 'brick' on their 'wall'.

Word Wall 5

This word wall is full of red words. Red words are the tricky words that cannot be sounded out. Please help your child to learn to read these words by sight. Each week their teacher will check to see which words they can read and give them a tick. If your child has three ticks next to a word then they can colour in that 'brick' on their 'wall'.

